5, 10 and 20 Lines on Children's Day in English

Sets for UKG to Class 10, plus 10 lines on Chacha Nehru.

Children's Day 2026: Saturday, 14 November

5 lines on Children's Day: UKG and Class 1

The shortest set, for the youngest speakers. About twenty seconds.

1. Children's Day is on 14 November.
2. It is the birthday of Chacha Nehru.
3. Chacha Nehru loved children very much.
4. We sing, dance and play games at school.
5. Happy Children's Day to everyone!

10 lines on Children's Day: Classes 1 to 3

Short words, short sentences. This set takes about forty seconds to say.

1. Children's Day is celebrated on 14 November.
2. It is the birthday of Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru.
3. He was the first Prime Minister of India.
4. He loved children very much.
5. Children called him Chacha Nehru.
6. He liked to wear a rose on his coat.
7. Our school has a special programme on this day.
8. Our teachers sing and dance for us.
9. We play games and share sweets.
10. Happy Children's Day to all my friends!

10 lines on Children's Day: Classes 4 and 5

A little more detail. About a minute.

1. Children's Day is celebrated in India every year on 14 November.
2. It is also called Bal Diwas.

3. The day marks the birthday of Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru, who was born in 1889 in Allahabad.
4. He became the first Prime Minister of India in 1947.
5. He was very fond of children, and they lovingly called him Chacha Nehru.
6. He believed that children are the future of the country.
7. He wanted every child to go to school and to have time to play.
8. On this day schools hold programmes, games and competitions.
9. In many schools, teachers perform songs and skits for their students.
10. Children's Day reminds us that every child deserves a happy childhood.

10 lines on Children's Day: Classes 6 to 8

For a student who can handle longer sentences. About a minute and a half.

1. Children's Day, or Bal Diwas, is celebrated across India on 14 November, the birth anniversary of Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru.
2. Nehru was born in 1889 at Allahabad, now Prayagraj, and studied at Harrow and Cambridge in England.
3. He joined the freedom movement under Mahatma Gandhi and spent more than nine years in British prisons.
4. When India became independent on 15 August 1947, he became its first Prime Minister and served until his death in 1964.
5. In 1928 he wrote a series of letters to his ten-year-old daughter Indira, later published as Letters from a Father to His Daughter.
6. Children loved him, and he is still remembered as Chacha Nehru.
7. He believed that the way a nation brings up its children decides its future.
8. Children's Day was already being celebrated on his birthday in the 1950s, while he was Prime Minister.
9. Schools mark the day with special assemblies, cultural programmes, games and competitions.
10. The day reminds us that every child has a right to education, safety and a happy childhood.

20 lines on Children's Day: Classes 6 to 10

For a longer speech or a short essay. About two and a half minutes when spoken.

1. Children's Day, also called Bal Diwas, is celebrated in India every year on 14 November.
2. In 2026, Children's Day falls on a Saturday.
3. The day marks the birth anniversary of Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru, the first Prime Minister of India.
4. Nehru was born on 14 November 1889 at Allahabad, which is now called Prayagraj.
5. His father, Motilal Nehru, was a well-known lawyer.
6. He studied in England, at Harrow and at Cambridge, and came back to India in 1912.
7. He joined Mahatma Gandhi in the struggle for India's freedom.
8. He spent more than nine years in British prisons during the freedom movement.
9. In prison he wrote The Discovery of India, a book about the history of the country.
10. When India became independent on 15 August 1947, he became its first Prime Minister.
11. He served as Prime Minister until his death on 27 May 1964.
12. Nehru loved children, and they affectionately called him Chacha Nehru.
13. He liked to wear a fresh rose on his coat.
14. He believed that children are the real strength of a nation.
15. He wanted every child to have good education, healthy food and time to play.
16. On Children's Day, schools hold special assemblies, cultural programmes and competitions.
17. In many schools, teachers perform songs, dances and plays for their students.
18. Children wear colourful clothes, play games and share sweets with their friends.

19. The day also reminds us of the children who cannot go to school because of poverty.
20. Let us promise to help every child enjoy a safe, healthy and happy childhood.

10 lines on Chacha Nehru (Jawaharlal Nehru)

For when the topic is Nehru himself rather than the day.

1. Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru was born on 14 November 1889 in Allahabad.
2. His father, Motilal Nehru, was a well-known lawyer.
3. He studied in England and returned to India in 1912.
4. He joined Mahatma Gandhi in the struggle for India's freedom.
5. In 1929, as Congress president at Lahore, he led the call for complete independence, or Purna Swaraj.
6. He was sent to prison many times for taking part in the freedom movement.
7. He wrote the famous book The Discovery of India while in prison.
8. He became the first Prime Minister of India on 15 August 1947.
9. He died on 27 May 1964, after nearly seventeen years as Prime Minister.
10. His birthday, 14 November, is celebrated as Children's Day.

Practise saying it out loud: rehearse your speech free with the AI speaking coach on TalkDrill, www.talkdrill.com